FRENCH WARSHIPS

HURRYING TO MERSINA.

Christians Have Taken Refuge in Consulates.

Constantinople April 18.—Confirmation has been received here of the killing of two American missionaries at Adana.

The murdered missionaries were Mr. Rogers and Mr. Maurer. The others connected with the mission are safe, including Mr. Christie, who is at Tarsus.

Three French warships are hurrying to Mersina where the situation is desperate. Foreigners and many Christians have taken refuge in many consulates. The troops and the Governor are doing their best to protect the town, but there is great fear that it cannot hold on much longer against the invasion of the Moslems who are sweeping down in large numbers. The American vice consul at Mersina, John Debbas, has been unable to proceed to Adana owing to interruption of communication.

A British warship is proceeding to Alexandretta which is threatened by the Moslems. The tension at Constantinople is great, although this afternoon there seem to be some prospects of a peaceful solution of the trouble. The people of the capital are more concerned with the advance of the Salonik troops than with the massacre reported from various quarters. The army which is concentrating at Tchatalje has promised not to enter Constantinople but to await there the fulfillment of its demands.

The officers of the Salonika army control the train service to Europe and the service as a consequence, is much delayed. The council of ministers took the demands of the troops under advisement. The first of these seems to be easy of solution, provided the deputies agree to return. The second demand, however, involving the punishment of the ringleaders, will be difficult to meet, and might cause trouble. Constantinople is now tranquil although the public is exceedingly nervous and apprehensive. The garrison appears to be under better discipline and the troops have taken the oath on the Koran to remain quiet and obey the officers.

According to the latest news from Adana the missionaries do not dare to leave the mission house. They are suffering from lack of provisions and medicines and have sent an appeal to the military authorities for protection. Adana is still burning and it is estimated that not less than 3,000 persons are homeless at Tarsus.

The excellent address published in yesterday's Advertiser, "Calvin, Father of Modern Missions" was delivered before the South-east Alabama Presbytery at Dothan by Rev. R. B. Morrow, of West Point, Ga. The note accompanying the address sent from Dothan, requested its publication on behalf of a number of Presbyterians, but the note failed to say who had delivered it. The subject was presented so forcefully and interestingly, however, that the address was good enough to be published no matter who delivered it. It was therefore, set in type, with the intention of giving due credit to the author of it as soon as his name was learned. So in carrying out this intention the Advertiser's readers are informed that it was delivered by Rev. R. B. Morrow, and it met at Dothan the appreciation that it deserved.

"TIME was when I did not consider myself fashionably attired unless my clothes bore the label of the high priced, exclusive merchant tailor," said a prominent Dothanite to the writer, recently. "One day he concluded to give us a chance to 'make good' our claims," "and the result is that he has been wearing our clothes ever since."

Prejudice, deep-seated is hard to shake off.

The manufactures that we buy our Clothing from are producing the finest clothes manufactured in America. That's an admitted fact. YOU, who still lean the merchant-tailor way, sooner or later must do as Hunbreds upon Hundreds, of your fellows have done, namely, give our clothing "the fighting chance," which is all we ask or require to "make good."

Few men talk themselves into a job, but many lose it that way.

Nearly every man talks, and most of us overdo the accomplishment.

A man can build a substantial credit without an architect's blue prints.

No man will ever be competent to give order until he learns to obey them.

T. V. White, a route 5 subscriber, was in to see us Saturday and make a payment for the paper.

If lots of little boys are your friends now, and you treat them right, there will come a time when you will have lots of friends among men.

"Winter has lingered lovingly in spring's lap," but no one has dug up the old joke, and we don't propose to start the digging here.

Sherman is no doubt a modern man, but his silence is no sign of it, for who ever heard of a vice-president doing anything, or saying anything, after he was elected? Of course, we bar Roosevelt.

Twenty years ago, it was a common thing to walk into a church and hear a sermon preached by a man who lisped like a weak-lunged bicycle pump; but you don't hear him any more. Something has gone with the practical lispers. They either had their teeth fixed, or became ashamed of it.

It was never any trouble to find a man to act as official axman, when the ax was used across the neck of the one whose time was up. It seems no trouble to find an umpire, as much as they all seem to need killing each season. A gruesome job has no terrors for some men.

A man by the name of Clark, from California, lived in Chicago way back yonder, for some cause or another. He visited Chicago the other day, because his son lives there, and it somehow became known that the old man had sworn off, and quit drinking seventy-five years ago. How he must mark, but possibly he doesn't care for it. He is 92 years old, but doesn't attribute his longevity to prohibition. He remarked, however, that the liquor sold in his younger days in Chicago was enough to make a man swear off.

A SUCCESSFUL PREACHER

A Chicago Methodist preacher resigned his job to take another just about like it in New Mexico. He did this thinking the change would be beneficial to the health of his daughter. This preacher was like a hundred and ten thousand others, in a financial way. He had never saved any money, for he had never received more than he needed as a salary.

On reaching Mexico he got a chance to pick up a ranch at a tax sale. Property went up and a year or two ago he was rated in the hundred thousand dollar class. With another lucky deal or two in farms and ranches his profits grew, till now he is worth $500,000, and during his successful deals in real estate, he has never been absent from his pulpit on Sunday, and has shown up on prayer meeting nights, even when it looked like rain, and the weather was cold, and a show was in town. He has been attending to his Master's work and, in so doing, his own business has taken care of itself.

IT'S GOOD.

If all could get plenty of the old time corn meal, and all the cooks knew how to prepare it for eating, there would be less cause for worry over the price of flour.

—Montgomery Advertiser.
The Corn Meal Editor of the Advertiser has said something before along this line, and it is possible that he knows a good thing in corn bread when he eats it. He may like it cooked in pones, ready for shelling in polliquo, or he may like it made up soft—in hot water, and spread out thin over a baker, and then baked and turned till the crust is crisp, with plenty of grease in the spider. Then he may like the bacon sliced thin—not "breakfast bacon," but the kind we raise here in Alabama and cure with hickory smoke, which is good for breakfast, supper or dinner. This sort of bread is alright for buttering on one side, or both, or in the middle. It's good.

THE PRICE OF WHEAT.

We are paying more for our flour now than we once did. We don't raise any wheat down this way, but the wheat farmers are reaping the benefit of the high prices, maybe.

Our cotton, now that it has passed, largely, out of the hands of the grower, is worth more than it was last selling time; still there is an improvement in the times which is noticeable. Time was when a flurry in the price of cotton at this season of the year would cut no figure, in so far as the grower was concerned, for he had but a small portion, if any, of the crop in hand, having sold before Christmas. But this is not now the case. The slightest advance in the prices of cotton now starts a string of wagons to market in this section, regardless of season. The farmers, most of them, hold some of the snowy staple in reserve, and sell only when they feel the price will justify it. This means easier times for the farmers, generally, in the wire-grass.

So, after all, the cotton planter doesn't mind paying the wheat grower a better profit, when he himself can get a better profit from his cotton, for the cotton planters living isn't entirely dependent upon wheat. He can eat other things, the most of which he can raise at home.

Preparation

Our present Congress has been called in special session, regulate the tariff, in order that the necessities of life may be so costly to the people. Educational conventions are assembling over the country preparing better courses of study and exchanging views, as to the best methods to reach the man mind, discipline it so that the conduct of the body will be respectable. Religious convocations more numerous than before, in poetry and prose, call the mind into a higher sphere that it may view the human soul in its majesty, and its relationship to the Deity. Looking through these mediums, of literature, education and Christianity, we ask: "What is to be done for the human body as it relates to life, that it may properly relish the threshold that it is now necessary that it enter?"

So, while the boat is being made ready for a more extensive voyage, carry with you some of our medicines, that will aid in getting it to sea. For your indigestion, use Holland's Peptic Elixir. If the wife or children are pale, no appetite tired and sleepy when night comes, get a bottle of our Blood Maker and Tonic. For germs in the blood, producing boils and eczema, take Hollan's Blood Purifier and Sarsaparilla.

There is a movement on foot to increase the enrollment of the various Sunday Schools of Dothan. The town will be divided and subdivided, so that at a given time the canvass can be made systematically and quickly.

A concerted effort will be made to bring all who are not affiliated with any Sunday school, into one class.

Further particulars of the plan will be given later.

Some people are born lucky. Some people are born in Dothan. These statements are synonymous.

Dothan is distinctive for progressiveness. There is no stagnation in Dothan. This city will never need treatment for inertia. Dothan is keeping step with the procession; staying abreast of the times. There are people here who have their opera glasses focused on the world's stage, studying the drama of the day and the men engaged therein. Whenever a good thing appears there, or a principle is inaugurated there which is worth while, all you need to do is just to wait a little while and you will see that thing or that principle at work in Dothan. And about the biggest thing which has ever struck this continent is about to be pulled off in Dothan. Just watch this space for the next two weeks. This is of monumental importance to you, your child, your friend, and your neighbor. Tell each one of them to watch this space. It will not cost you one cent to do this. It may mean a tragedy to you if you do not do this.

Our Savings department at the close of its first day's business contained 33 new accounts, a record of which we are proud, but when we consider that the ages of these depositors ranged from 10 months to 73 years, we are convinced that everyone should encourage the habit of saving 4 per cent in this department!

Echoes From the Epitaphal Pulpit Sunday Evening.

"For in him we live and move and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, for we are also his offspring."

"God, that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelling not in temples made with hands; neither is worshipped with men's hands as though he need anything, seeing that he giveth to all life, and breath and all things."

"That they should seek the Lord if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us."

Mrs Meyrovitz Entertains in Honor of Mrs. Ash.

At her home on Rose Hill Friday evening, Mrs. Meyrovitz entertained for Mrs. Ash of Chicago, who was the charming guest of Mrs. McKenzie last week.

Progressive whist was the mode of entertainment, interspersed with beautiful musical selections on the violin by Mr. I. Boxhorn, whom Mrs. Ash accompanied on the piano. Mrs. Ash is herself a splendid musician and sings with much sweetness of expression, and during the evening, gave several selections, much to the delight of those present.

Mrs. Meyrovitz served in the dining room, a delightful course luncheon. The color scheme here was white and green. Upon the center-piece of beautiful Mexican drawn work over white satin, rested a crystal vase holding lovely white roses and asparagus fern.
The place cards were hand painted white roses, and the souvenirs pure white rose buds.

Mrs. Ash, of Chicago, who has been visiting Mrs. McKenzie, left for home Saturday morning.

Mrs. B. T. Ghent will entertain at luncheon Tuesday at one o'clock, at her home on Rose Hill, in honor of Mrs. Williams McCurthy of Atlanta, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Thrasher, at the Thrasher house.

Miss Bert Faircloth will leave in the morning for Mobile, where she goes to be maid of honor at the marriage of Miss Laura McNeil, which will occur on the 29th of April, at the St. Francis Street Church, at nine o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Brantley left this afternoon for their home in Troy, after a delightful visit to their mother, Mrs. Minnie Clark.

BE ON TIME.

It is an easy matter to be on time. Few people ever get left who are going away on a railroad because they know they must be there on schedule.

In the course of a lifetime many months are lost by one having to wait unnecessarily on some one else. There is the simple wait that usually occurs in the filling of a business engagement set for a certain hour, which will count during a lifetime; then, the time that one loses by not being ready for dinner when the bell rings amounts to something. A boy who is not taught to be ready for a meal way before it is ready, will be late for all the good things of life, if he is not broken from the habit. He shouldn't wait until after the bell announces dinner to go and wash his face, yet many do it. He shouldn't be ten minutes late at school, nor even one minute, seeing how he will be just a little ahead of time at the ball game or the circus.

The value of being on time cannot be drilled into the head at too early an age. The idea should be firmly fixed that it is not polite to be late, socially, and that he is to call at two o'clock to attend to some business, two-ten may not be acceptable.

There are some who are always a little late at church and Sunday school, a habit contracted, no doubt, from attending theatres, where no one is expected to be on time, and especially the performers.

You have the same right to be ten dollars shy in a sixty dollar settlement as you have to be ten minutes late, when there are but sixty minutes to the hour. Time is worth more now than ever before. It's getting dearer every day, too, and you should learn to economize on it.

The banker, for all we know, has a higher regard for the man who calls and renews his note today it's due, than he would have if the man went on for several days after it was due, and actually paid it.

There's nothing like getting what you want and when you want it, in groceries. It is our pleasure to furnish customers the particular kind of eatables they want. Always fresh. Bonham & Unapery.

NOT SO YOUNG.

Dothan is a young town, as towns go, but we don't think the country lying adjacent to this town will justify the name the town evidently has ahead.

You may not get at what we mean from this. We will try another way. If this town didn't have the name of being easy, as we have often remarked with some caution, we wouldn't be overran all the time by gold brick schemers. We don't know of a single man in Houston County who has ever bought that kind of brick, but some may have purchased other grades that closely resembled it and said nothing about it. And that's one good trait our people have. If one gets stung, he doesn't go around with the place done up, showing it for sympathy. He holds his tongue and acts very much wiser. And he is wiser.

During the past few days we have been visited, that is, some of the mailed men have, by some of the mining, or silver, or copper-mining gentlemen—we don't remember just exactly what kind of mining stock they were overloaded with, but they had something that could be spared, and sometimes to Dothan to put a check-few on the record that of a brand new mining enterprise, in Nevada or some equally immaginal state, too far off, at least, to go out and look over the property before buying.

For the town to be visited by gentlemen who have more mining stock than they need, is, to our way of putting it, a reflection on the town's intelligence. Just because we have had a town here for a couple of decades, is not reason why the fishers-after-men, or speculators, should pull the line out of good fishing holes and drop the bait down in our puddle. We don't swallow everything that looks good. We are rather cautious, and most of us figure that if we had a mine in a mine out west, or in South Africa, we'd keep it in the family, and not travel half across the continent to sell a few shares to an unknown people, a people that might not appreciate so good a thing, if they had it.

The men offering this stock the select few have been here a couple of weeks and it was reported to us that one of them walked out with a beaver and Ella, the first day, but this may have been an error. He only had a particularly keenly ground dyke beard. He was a Freeman, which he wasn't; had a leisurely air of a retired capialist, or prosperous professionist; but either, like either, like If they sold any of their certificates, non-assessable stock the men who purchased are all on the subject.

ABOUT REFRIGERATORS

Whatever food stuff is put into your refrigerator should not only be kept cool, but it should be kept clean. One article of a high odor should not make another article taste of it.

Our refrigerators will do all that one can expect a first class refrigerator to do

The next point in their favor is: Ice-Economy. We will put our CHALLENGE against any make on earth.

Come down and let us show you through them. We have them in any price.
